

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 3, 2008
Naperville Jaycees
P.O. Box 22
Naperville, IL 60566
Phone: (630) 961-9375
Email: jcinfo@naperjaycees.org

NAPERVILLE JAYCEES ANNOUNCE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARDS FINALISTS

Friday, April 25th at 6:00 pm, the Naperville Jaycees will host the 30th Annual Distinguished Service Awards at the Holiday Inn Select, Naperville. The ceremony will recognize Naperville community members as finalists and award recipients in eight categories; Business, Civic Leader, Educator, Lifetime Achievement, Not-for-Profit Organization, Public Employee and Student Volunteer. The theme for the 30th Annual Distinguished Service Awards will be “Oh What a Night,” and will honor and celebrate the work of individuals and organizations in the Naperville Community. The Jaycees recently announced two finalists in each category, with the award recipient to be named at the event.

The finalists for Business are Harris Bank and Ryan Hill Realty. Civic Leader finalists are Bob Biedron and J. Alan Fry. The finalists in the Educator category are Judy Brodhead and Sarah Maher. Not-for-Profit Organization finalists are Loaves and Fishes and KidsMatter. The finalists for Public Employee are Ella Drucek and David Szablewski. The Student Volunteer finalists are Adam Alongi and Ben MacRae. The Lifetime Achievement award recipient for 2008 is Bill Abe. An honorary Distinguished Service Award will also be presented to the family of Elaine Jungnickel in memory of her dedication to the community.

Tickets for the event are $40 and are available by visiting www.naperjaycees.org. For questions, or more information on the 30th Annual Distinguished Service Awards, visit the Jaycees website, or call (630) 961-9375.

#

#

#