

Young Professionals offer dual-membership deal

SUN STAFF

The Young Professionals of the Naperville Chamber and the Naperville Jaycees are offering a discounted dual membership to their organizations.

Separate but complementary organizations, the YPNC offers professional development outlet for the Jaycees while the Jaycees offers a civic outlet for the YPNC.

The two groups focus on developing young leaders. Memberships are open to people under age 40. The YPNC furthers the chamber's mission by promoting the growth and development of the next generation of business and civic leaders through professional and personal growth, leadership skills and business alliances.

Members of the Jaycees volunteer their time through fundraising, helping others and recognizing the outstanding efforts of people within the community. The Last Fling, held over Labor Day weekend in downtown Naperville, is its biggest annual fundraising event. Last year, the Jaycees donated more than $130,000 to local charities and organizations.

Dues for dual membership is $125. Individual membership in the YPNC is $99 and the Jaycees is $55.

The YPNC meets at 7:30 a.m. the second Friday of each month at the Naperville Area Chamber of Commerce. The Jaycees meet at 7:30 p.m. the second Tuesday of each month at the Judd Kendall VFW Hall.

For more information, call 630-544-3364.